

Siena One

For Straight Stairs

Stannah
The Stairlift People

Designed for comfort and economy, the Siena One from Stannah will help you quickly get back to doing what you love while maintaining your independence at home.

The Siena One offers a practical solution for straight stairs. With a comfortable, roomy seat, wide footrest, full length armrests, and two remote controls, it's packed with standard features that prioritize comfort and safety. The directional control is easy to reach and designed for people with limited hand function. Our slim rail, available in a silver finish, sits as close to your wall as possible, maximizing stair space and making it a good fit even on narrow stairs. Its long-life batteries that recharge wherever you park the chair, ensure that the Siena One is always ready to use, even in a power outage.
